Q2 Discipline Meltdown — Galica YC + White YC → 3 LOU Man-Up Goals

-28.5%

Galica yellow at 13:43 led directly to Jackson MU/FPG (13:00) → 3-5. White yellow at 12:59 led to Whiteman MU goal (11:50) → 3-6. McMahon MU goal (07:42) made it 4-7 after Kology green at 09:25. Three man-up goals conceded in one quarter. Virginia gifted Louisville a 3-goal lead through discipline failures alone. These 6 penalty minutes in Q2 were the game's lowest point.

Trailing 5-8 at Halftime — Season's Largest Deficit to Overcome

-18.0%

After Adkins FPG (00:58) and Galica's buzzer-beater (00:01), Virginia went to half down 6-8. The Q2 card sequence (3 man-up goals conceded) created a hole that required a historic second half. Win probability dropped to ~28% at halftime. Louisville had momentum, the crowd, and a 3-goal MU advantage.

Q4 Shutout — Virginia 5, Louisville 0 in Final Quarter

+62.0%

The defining quarter of the season so far. Louisville scored ZERO goals in Q4 — zero shots on goal, zero free positions converted. Meanwhile Allen scored at 14:07 (FPG), 12:34, 11:10, and 05:53 — four consecutive goals in 8:14 of game time. Piraino added the insurance at 02:12. Virginia outshot Louisville 14-6 in Q4 and won draws 5-0. Complete domination.

Fiona Allen 5-Goal Masterclass — Career Game

+48.0%

Allen's stat line: 5G-0A-5P, 6 shots, 83.3% shooting. She scored Virginia's first Q4 goal on a free position to make it 8-10, then rattled off three straight unassisted goals to tie it 10-10 and take the lead 11-10. Her Q4 alone (4G) outscored Louisville's entire second half (2G). This was a player taking over a game when her team needed it most — the kind of performance that changes seasons.

Finnelle Stabilization — 7 Saves, 41.2% SV%

+8.5%

After the four-game spiral (58.8% → 33.3% → 29.4% → ~10% vs JMU), Finnelle bounced back with 7 saves including critical stops in Q3 (Nicholson FP, Whiteman) and Q4 (Berg FP, Kitchen FP, Whiteman). She made 3 saves in Q4 alone, preserving the comeback. 41.2% isn't elite, but it's a massive improvement and the defense played much better in front of her — Louisville had zero SOG in Q4.
